COROTÚ

Panamá

Santa María

A design that stands the test of time

The project is located in Santa María, a community that offers a wide variety of services, including boutiques, restaurants, banks, pharmacies, a business center, and schools—all just 5 minutes away. This area combines security and comfort to provide an exceptional quality of life. Thanks to its golf course, designed by the renowned firm Nicklaus Design, the surroundings offer a sense of peace and openness, creating a true urban oasis.

Corotú, a reinterpretation of modern living in Panama. Located within a luxury residential complex, it is surrounded by a magnificent natural setting of lush greenery and contemporary architecture; a fresh and pleasant environment that allows you to enjoy a truly unparalleled lifestyle. We want those who live in this project to be surrounded by thoughtful details that make them feel at home—an exclusive club where you will have everything you need.

Its timeless design features 47 floors, 199 apartments, and 5,270 m² of amenities designed for all ages. A place where comfort and community become the fundamental pillars of everyday life.
